

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the First Peoples of Australia.

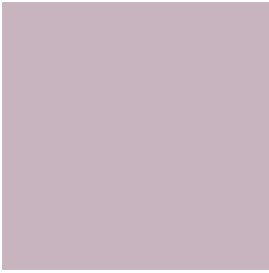

Our tribes lived here first under our own laws for over 60,000 years.

Our bond with the land is sacred and unbroken.

Today, our people face unfair treatment.

Too many are in prison.

Too many children are taken from families.

We need changes.

We ask for a Voice in Australia's main law to have a say in decisions about us.

We want Makarrata, which means making peace after hard times.

This includes truth-telling about history and agreements with governments.

When we control our lives, our children will do well.

They will share their culture with Australia.

We invite everyone to join us in building a fairer future together.
